ALEXANDRIA, VA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 29, 1907.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherry-bark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, chronic, and nervous coughs, bronchitis, and hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering, hanging coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from the lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Lillingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine: "In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the percentage of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon indigestion, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration of the stomach, it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of dyspepsia (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scurfulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy coating of hair; yet if the scalp of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00. E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

Reason for Minister's Flight.

Mrs. Delia E. Dalrymple, wife of Rev. C. H. Dalrymple, the Unitarian clergyman, of Worcester, Mass., who recently mysteriously disappeared from Millbury, to be located a couple of days ago in Chicago, caused a sensation yesterday when she gave out a long, carefully prepared interview, outlining the real reasons for the flight.

Mrs. Dalrymple alleges that her life has been made miserable by the irritability of her husband who often threatened to commit suicide because she refused to allow him to check out of the bank money left her by her father; also that Rev. Dalrymple had threatened to have a commission appointed to declare his wife incapable of transacting business, making a third charge against her husband Mrs. Dalrymple said:

"The third cause was my husband's relation with another woman. One of the interested parties [Miss Nora B. Weston] believing that the story must soon become public, notified her parents of the situation and wrote me a letter, in which permission was given to use the same, as I saw fit." Miss Weston begs forgiveness of Mrs. Dalrymple for the great wrong done her. She calls attention to her youth and innocence prior to this and her inability to withstand temptation. She was a mere slip of a girl, sixteen, when she entered the Dalrymple home five years ago. She is an extremely beautiful young woman and has become a singer. She disappeared after writing the letter.

Boycott Cause of the Trouble.

Assistant United States District Attorney Black gained further evidence in San Francisco yesterday regarding the attack on the Japanese restaurant, which has now become an international episode. He failed to find anything likely to cause trouble with Japan.

Four white witnesses and the Japanese were examined. All the whites agreed that the trouble developed from the labor union boycott. These witnesses said there had been a fight in the street due to a laboring man coming out of a restaurant and being asked whether he was a union man. He declared he was not and was set upon and badly beaten. This drew a large crowd which was still present when trouble arose between a father and a teamster. A Japanese cook appeared with a knife, and in the struggle this knife was thrown through a pane of glass. At this one of the crowd remarked: "I guess they want their windows broken. Well, we'll help them out." With this, they destroyed the windows, including those lettered, "Stop! Try our wonder meals." The Japanese were examined, but they revealed nothing yet made public. The report of investigation was sent to Attorney General Bonaparte.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

Davis Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weakness. Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation, etc. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 50c.

Eighteen indictments against Jordan. The May grand jury, in New York, which has been investigating the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, yesterday returned 18 indictments against Thos. A. Jordan, formerly controller of the Equitable. Perjury and forgery in the third degree was charged. No indictments were found against present officials of the society.

Mr. Jordan will appear in the Supreme Court today to plead to the indictments and furnish bail.

As in the case of John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, who was indicted by the same grand jury, the indictments against Jordan are based on year-end transactions recorded in the books of the Equitable while Jordan was its controller. These consist of entries made prior to the annual report to the State Department of Insurance and designed, it is charged, to mislead the superintendent of insurance as to the real condition of the company. Specifically, the forgery indictments are founded on bookkeeping alterations and the charge of perjury on statements made to the insurance department.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, sample of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Babies Fed to Sacred Snake.

In spite of the fact that a similar charge was investigated and dismissed by the grand jury some time ago, another complaint has been filed with United States District Attorney Llewellyn, of New Mexico, that a tribe of Indians in that Territory are given to the worship of an enormous serpent, to which is fed the newborn babes of a pueblo in which it is housed and carefully tended and guarded. The complaint was filed by a Catholic priest, who alleges that a dozen families were segregated from several pueblos two years ago and formed into a pueblo by themselves. Although it is known that many children have been born to these families, not a child is to be found in the pueblo. This led the priest to press his investigations, with the result, as alleged, that he discovered that in an adobe house, isolated and closely guarded, there is an enormous serpent, which is worshipped by the Indians of all the pueblos around, and that every babe born in the small pueblo, and it is supposed in many others, is fed to the serpent.

Held for Grand Jury.

At the conclusion of a hearing before United States Commissioner Rogers in Baltimore yesterday Miss Beatie L. Bond, for many years prominent in the work of the M. E. Church South there, was held for the action of the United States grand jury on a charge of raising a bank note from $10 to $100. Secret Service Agent James E. Wright produced the altered note and showed where portions of a Buffalo bank note had been pasted over a $10 note of the Lendoun National Bank, Leesburg. He also produced two $10 notes from which portions fitting the pieces added to the raised note had been torn. These notes were recovered from the Treasury Department, to which Miss Bond had forwarded them with a request for redemption.
